Key responsibilities:

- Monitor anti-corruption developments and trends related to rule of law and PIF in the EU;
- Conduct desk research and investigative analysis of anti-corruption-relevant information, in particular data, trends and stakeholders;

- Assist in the implementation of TI EU's campaign to increase rule of law standards in member states;
- Participate in the development and implementation of communications strategies using traditional and social (blogs, Twitter, etc.) media;
- Assist in drafting policy briefs and issue papers
- Engage in outreach activities with EU institutions and relevant stakeholders;
- Helping to organise presentations on the work of TI, internal meetings and external events;
- Supporting the team in organisational and administrative matters;
- Perform other ad hoc duties as required

Knowledge, experience, and skills:

- University degree in European Studies, Economics, Law, Political Sciences, International Relations, or other related field – or equivalent acquired through work experience;
- In-depth understanding of EU institutions and policy-making;
- An analytical, inquisitive and critical mindset;
- Excellent knowledge of Hungarian and English (written and spoken); other EU languages are a plus;
- Strong research and writing skills; proficiency in the use of the Microsoft 365 suite of apps;
- Dynamic and creative self-starter; highly motivated, organised, and flexible;
- Strong interpersonal skills, including an ability to work in a small, multi-cultural team;
- A commitment to the values and goals of Transparency International.

Application procedure:

Applications should be submitted in English by completing the form below and include a CV and a cover letter.

The deadline for applications is Sunday 11 December 2022 at 23:59 Brussels time.

Short-listed applicants will be asked to take part in an interview and a written test.

Interviews to take place the week of December 12th.

Please note that applicants must be a resident of Belgium or have the right to reside and work in Belgium.

TI EU is committed to diversity in its staffing, including based on gender, ethnic origin, and disability. We encourage candidates with such diverse backgrounds to apply.

Due to the large number of applications, only short-listed candidates will be contacted.

Unless told by you not to do so, we shall keep your application on file for 6 months after the vacancy has closed. Applications older than 6 months are deleted in line with our implementation of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 on general data protection.
