

Transparency International EU

The global coalition against corruption

EVENT: Towards a breakthrough for lobbying transparency?

Vitor Teixeira · Monday, October 21st, 2019

WHEN:

13th November, 12:00 – 14:00 (including lunch)

WHERE:

The Press Club, Brussels

It's full steam ahead again in Brussels, with a new Commission on the way coming with new commitments and priorities. The Finnish have made lobby transparency one of the goals of their Presidency, the new Commission included the creation of a mandatory lobby register in their work plan and major European parties promised increased transparency during the last European elections. So what comes next?

In this panel discussion, organised in partnership with EPACA, we will hear the views from each of the institutions and how they see the way forward on the creation of a mandatory EU transparency register.

Please see the draft agenda below.

12:00 – 12:40 Networking lunch and registration

12:40 – 12:50 Welcome address

Michiel van Hulten

Director, Transparency International EU

12:50 – 13:00 Introductory speech

Emily O'Reilly

European Ombudsman

13:00 – 13:50 Panel discussion

Tytti Tuppurainen

Finnish Minister for European Affairs, Council of the European Union

V?ra Jourová

Commissioner-designate for Values and Transparency, European Commission

Katarina Barley

Vice-President for Transparency Register, European Parliament

---

Moderated by James Kanter

13:50 – 14:00 Closing remarks

Isabelle de Vinck

President, European Public Affairs Consultancies Association

This event is at capacity and registration is now closed.

For any questions please contact lpearson@transparency.org

This entry was posted on Monday, October 21st, 2019 at 10:10 am