The global coalition against corruption

Illicit Financial Flows – Traineeship

Marthe Jansen · Wednesday, June 17th, 2026

Transparency International EU (TI EU) is an international non-profit association under Belgian law (AISBL) based in Brussels (Belgium). We work closely with Transparency International national chapters in over 100 countries worldwide and the International Secretariat (TI-S) based in Berlin.

As part of the global Transparency International movement, TI EU coordinates Transparency International's advocacy toward the EU institutions. The mission of TI EU is to prevent corruption and promote integrity, transparency and accountability in EU institutions, policies and legislation. This will in turn enhance efforts at the national level to fight corruption and promote equality and access to justice for citizens.

We are seeking a highly motivated trainee to assist the office working with our Illicit Financial Flows team. This role would touch on all areas of the team's work such as anti-money laundering, beneficial ownership and the EU Anti-Fraud Architecture, assisting in providing on demand policy and research requests from senior team members.

Main function: Illicit Financial Flows Policy trainee

Starting date: 1 September 2026

Duration: 6 months

Type of contract: Convention d'Immersion Professionnelle under Belgian law (38h/week)

Under the legal traineeship scheme used, candidates should be at the start of their careers (no more than 5+ years working experience in this field). This traineeship cannot provide credit required for a degree or diploma.

Location: Brussels, Belgium (A mix of teleworking and office-based work is offered)

Traineeship allowance: 1200 EUR gross per month, 10 extra-legal days' holiday, work from home allowance of 148.73 EUR and internet allowance of 20 EUR per month, lunch vouchers amounting to 8 EUR per working day, mobile phone subscription, hospitalisation insurance, private accident insurance, paid sick leave and 100% transport allowance.

Key responsibilities:

- Monitor anti-corruption and anti-money laundering developments and trends at EU level
- Conduct desk research and investigative analysis of anti-corruption- relevant information, in particular, data, trends and stakeholders
- Helping to organise presentations on the work of TI, internal meetings and external events
- Assist in the implementation of projects (including support for project management and project reporting)
- Assist the tracking of activities, impact and reporting to external actors
- Support communication activities such as proof-reading and social media outreach
- Overall support to the office, including various administrative tasks
- Perform other ad hoc duties as required

Knowledge, experience, and skills:

- University degree or equivalent experience in Law, European Studies, Economics, Political Sciences, International Relations or other social science-related field
- Excellent knowledge of English (written and spoken) is a requirement
- Demonstrated knowledge of EU institutions and EU-level policy making
- Experience in policy research and analysis would be a plus
- Excellent organisational skills including proficiency in the use of the Microsoft 365 suite of apps
- Considerable interest in the work of TI and the field of anti-corruption and anti-money laundering
- Team player, practical approach to problem solving and ability to work in a small team in a multi-cultural working environment
- A commitment to the values and goals of Transparency International

Application procedure:

Applications should be submitted in English by completing this form and include a CV and a cover letter. Transparency International EU highly discourages the use of AI to generate cover letters.

The deadline for applications is Wednesday 1 July 2026 at 23:59 Brussels time.

Short-listed applicants will be asked to take part in an interview the week of July 6th.

Please note that applicants must have the legal right to reside and work in Belgium.

TI EU is committed to diversity in its staffing, including based on gender, ethnic origin, and disability. We encourage candidates with such diverse backgrounds to apply.

Due to the large number of applications, only short-listed candidates will be contacted.

Unless told by you not to do so, we shall keep your application on file for 6 months after the vacancy has closed. Applications older than 6 months are deleted in line with our implementation of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 on general data protection.
