
Transparency International EU

The global coalition against corruption

Understanding Integrity Pacts

Admin · Saturday, April 30th, 2016

Integrity Pacts are an agreement between public authorities, companies bidding for a contract and civil society around public works. Through transparency and monitoring Integrity Pacts improve trust and accountability in public procurement. It promotes good governance and can also encourage institutional changes, such as the increased use of e-procurement systems and improvements of regulatory environments.

This entry was posted on Saturday, April 30th, 2016 at 10:52 am