Dear Mr Aiossa,

Thank you for your follow-up query.

We confirm that no such supporting documents were submitted by the concerned MEPs to claim for additional travel allowances, for travel undertaken during the specific time periods you mentioned in your application.

Kind regards,

Dear Sir/Madam,

Thanks very much for your efforts, much appreciated. Just to be sure I was clear in my request and that I understand your reply. No documents were submitted by those four MEPs for use of the extra travel allowance for travel during those periods; irrespective on when they might have submitted those documents.

If you wouldn't mind clarifying this point so that I can properly understand that would be great, thanks!

Best regards,
Nick

Dear Mr Aiossa,

Please allow us to correct our previous email. The response under reference 2024-0471 relates to your application concerning four Members of Parliament, not three. Our apologies.

Dear Mr Aiossa,

Thank you for contacting the Transparency Unit of the European Parliament.

This responds to your request under Regulation \(EC\) No 1049/2001 for public access to evidence, such as agendas or invitations, submitted by three Members of Parliament in specific time periods, in order to obtain the reimbursement of additional travel expenses, in accordance with Article 22 of the implementing measures for the Statute for Members of the European Parliament.

Please be informed that Parliament does not hold any documents falling within the scope of your request, since no such documental evidence was produced by the Members concerned in the periods indicated in your application.

On this basis, Parliament considers your request handled and the procedure closed. Should you wish to submit any new requests for specific Parliament documents, please do not hesitate to come back to us.

Kind regards,
